

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I love my satellite radio, and I think the government has better things to do than restrict whether they can provide local traffic and weather programming.